

Visions – Karen’s Birth

By Marie Anderson

My daughter Leona Marie, now a widow with 3 adult children had quite a time bringing each of her children into the world. The Lord holds a special purpose for each of them. This is a story of my experience when her second child, Karen Marie was born.

My husband and I lived on a dairy farm in Wisconsin and Leona and her husband lived in California. Leona was expecting her second child, and I was nervous and apprehensive being so far away and knowing how she had suffered birthing her first child. The time was getting closer and Leona was expecting to deliver at any moment.

That night as I lay sleeping in bed I awoke suddenly. There on the ceiling above me were beautiful tiny angels but as I looked closer I saw dark objects near the light fixture. I jumped from my bed and began to pray. My husband was in the hospital at the time and I didn’t know what to think. I prayed the Lord would keep everyone safe and that His will be done. The sun came up as I continued to pray when the telephone rang. It was my Son-in-Law announcing the birth of their baby girl Karen Marie!

Oh how Leona had suffered that night, but by the Lord’s hand she and the baby were safe.
